

Missouri IH Plow Day

Sponsored by Chapter #1 of the National IH Collectors Club

- What: Plowing around 75 +/- acres for fun, near Moberly, Missouri
- When: Saturday, October 8, 2011 – Will start plowing at 9:00 AM (Rain date: Oct 15, 2011)
- Where: Road 1760 – Just south of Jacksonville, Missouri, on the east side of Hwy 63
Don Mutter Farms (Watch for signs)
- Who: Only IH tractors and plows. Must be at least a member of National IH Collectors Club, and you can sign up at the plow day for $15. Membership is because of insurance.

Plow must be set or get help setting up your plow on arrival before plowing. This will be a nice crop field that we cannot mess up leaving a lot of holes.

Food (Lunch/Snacks) will be sold by a local group.

Moberly Hotels are:

Best Western 1200 E. Hwy 24, 660-263-6540

Budget Inn 1711 N. Morley, 660-263-5000

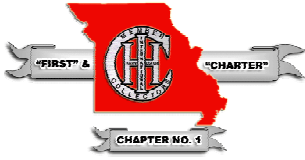

Holiday Inn Express, 1801 West Outer Road, 660-263-9700

Super 8, North Morley, 660-263-8862

Spectators are welcome to watch, and there should be an extra tractor that you could take a round or so.

To confirm attendance, call: Andrew Dawson – 660-346-0319 or Darrell Darst – 636-295-0695

1210 South Washington Street
MEXICO MISSOURI 65265-2457